

UTS HABERFIELD CLUB NOW OPEN

Work formally began on-site during May 2013 and though the Club was not operational in this time more than 1200 members chose to renew their membership.

The loyalty of UTS Haberfield Club members reflects an enormous amount of community spirit is alive and well at UTS and the local municipality.

The licenced club which offers a members and guest bar and restaurant opened on 12 April 2014.

The licenced club is a community facility and not an exclusive restaurant and bar.

The downstairs rowing shed houses a state of the art rowing club and provides members and students with a world class rowing facility on the waters of Haberfield.

It is already recognised as one of the finest rowing facilities in Australia.

TOUR OF THE NEW UTS HABERFIELD ROWING CLUB

The Union has arranged a tour of the new UTS Haberfield Rowing Club for members of the Union. This will take place on Monday 23rd June 2014 at 11:30 am. Professor Ross Milbourne, Vice-Chancellor of the university, will be present and the Executive of the Union has decided to recognise the outstanding contribution of Professor Milbourne to rowing over a long period of time by awarding him honorary membership of the Union. There will be an opportunity to tour the new boatshed and inspect the new licensed club facility upstairs, and stay for lunch.

To book your place on this tour, please contact Phillip Titterton on 0402 046 965 or by email pti@bigpond.net.au by Monday 16th June.

J.B. SHARP 90TH MEMORIAL REGATTA SERIES ON IRON COVE

The J.B. Sharp Memorial Regatta Series is always run during the winter months and although originally only open to the 'bay clubs' from within Iron Cove it is now open to all clubs, though retaining the original objective of measuring the all round rowing strength of the clubs.
